

A LEADER IN RESPONSIBLE DISPOSAL AND ROI OPTIMIZATION

For thirty-five years, Smith has built a foundation of both stability and innovation – and a reputation to match for comprehensive, skilled, and multifaceted customer support. We use this strong foundation to help customers recover the value of their retired assets through our IT asset disposition services.

WHAT WE DO

Smith's offerings go far beyond just sourcing. We support our global partners at every step of their processes and their supply chains, from beginning to end – including providing options for dynamic IT asset disposition that meet their custom needs.

Smith's Intelligent Distribution™ meets Intelligent ITAD™. Our ITAD program and resources offer better ROI alongside the peace of mind of knowing that retired assets are being dispositioned responsibly. See how our strategies can help your business today.

INTELLIGENT ITAD™

An array of capabilities, strengths, and best practices underpin our Intelligent ITAD™ offerings.

- IT Equipment Disposition After a Technology Refresh: We can help you with the disposition of your decommissioned or excess hardware.
- Data Destruction: Smith protects your data security with our wiping, degaussing, and shredding services. Our proprietary resources are self-developed and powered by DoD/NIST-compliant SWIPE software.
- Mobile/On-Site Shredding: The shredding services we offer on-site can come to you, with mobile disposition options available. We'll meet you where you need us.
- Data Center Decommissioning and Takeout Services: We'll provide the tailored support data centers need to manage their assets.
- Transparency and Visibility: We offer serialized tracking of assets, in addition to audit reports and certificates of wiping and destruction.
- Maximized Value Recovery: Smith's world-class trading team and vast network of customers support maximum ROI.
- R2 Certification: We'll arrange responsible recycling of materials that no longer have value.
- Global Reach: Our 16 offices spanning three continents provide worldwide ITAD support.
- Flexible Solutions: We'll build customized programs to fit your unique needs.

WHO WE SUPPORT

Smith supports customers across industries, from the data center to the server room. No matter what field you operate in, we can provide custom solutions for the equipment you need to retire – in line with any relevant compliance guidelines.
